x Visit from the East China University of Science and Technology

This week a delegation from the School of Social Policy and Public Administration of the East China University of Science and Technology (Shanghai) visited the School of Social Work to continue the exchange began with Wendy Thomson's visit to China, just before Christmas. The 5 person delegation, led by well-known social work scholar Professor Xu met with faculty from the school, and learned about fieldwork education, international placements and student exchanges, Couple and Family therapy, McGill's summer programs, the Centre for Research on Children and Families, and McGill's Institute for Health and Social Policy. The Chinese Family Services and Chinese Hospital hosted the delegation, showing how social work has developed to serve the Chinese community in Montreal. Social policy and social work are of increasing importance to China's modernization.

x Congratulations to Professor Myriam Denov - Canada Research Chair Award.

Congratulations to Professor Myriam Denov in receiving the Canada Research Chair Notice of Award and Acceptance. It is a great distinction bringing recognition and visibility to Myriam's research.

x Congratulations to Professor Myriam Denov - Trudeau Fellowship

Congratulations to Professor Myriam Denov on being awarded a Trudeau Fellowship in recognition of her contribution to the field of social work and her unwavering commitment to excellence in research.

x YWCA - 2014 Woman of Distinction

The YWCA Montreal announced on Monday, May 5, 2014, its 13 laureates of the 2014 Women of Distinction Awards. Among the proud and well-deserved award recipients are Wendy Thomson (in the category of Education) and Mispa Nkuh Basa (in the category of YWCA Woman), our BSW graduate.
